

(

- (dear announcement reader people - could this first line be spoken in an ominous, echoey voice?) - Steven Spielberg ... George Lucas ... James Cameron ...

What do these famous directors have in common?

Their movies are

- almost as good as the ones you will see if you attend the PJ Film Festival next Tuesday at 3:00 after school.

The festival will feature new films from the grade 12 class as well as the best-of-the-best from the last few years.

As an added bonus, we will also be showcasing the films of recent PJ grads who are now attending film schools across the country.

The cost of admission is a low, low $2.00 -

- the best entertainment value you will ever experience in your lifetime!
