Presentation Details

Inclusion and equity issues in schools are at the top of many conversations today. But these conversations about students and the community are often done without students and community.

This presentation is created for the community – this is one of those needed conversations we should be having directly with parents and caregivers.

Guest speaker brought to you by:

- Grand Erie Parent Involvement Committee
- Special Education Advisory Committee
- Indigenous Education Advisory Committee
- Six Nations Advisory Committee
- Student Senate

Dr. Andrew B. Campbell, guest speaker

Dr. Andrew B. Campbell is an Assistant Professor in Leadership for Racial Justice in Education, and the Teaching and Learning Coordinator for the Master of Teaching program at the University of Toronto, at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education (OISE).

His research and teaching focus is on issues of EDI, anti-Black racism, anti-racist pedagogy, educational leadership, 2SLGBTQIA+ Issues, and Teacher Performance Evaluation.

Dr. ABC is well known to the OISE community for his leadership on advancing anti-discrimination work in teacher education, and received OISE's 2022 award for Excellence in Initial Teacher Education.
