

The Grand Erie District School Board believes that, in addition to academic excellence, a school promotes responsibility, respect, and civility in an environment that is safe, inclusive, caring, and accepting. This maximizes student potential and encourages a positive school climate for all members of the school community. These expectations are outlined in Policy SO12 - Code of Conduct and extend to interactions with educators and students with Distance Education in response to the COVID19 outbreak.

Learning in Your Home

When you are engaging in Distance Education, please select a common place with in your home (e.g. living room, kitchen table, office).

Creating Conditions for Learning

Try to create conditions for learning that will avoid possible distractions (e.g. avoid streaming, mute your camera or microphone if meeting virtually).

Be Respectful of Other Learners

Interactions with Distance Education should be respectful and align with Grand Erie's Policy SO12 - Code of Conduct.

Dress Code

Please dress as you would for learning within a Grand Erie classroom.

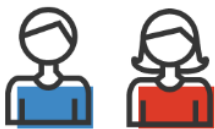

Virtual Meetings and Lessons

Please be comfortable with your virtual learning and mute your microphone and camera if you do not wish to have your audio and video on.

Contributing to the Learning

Please be courteous when interacting with your teacher and classmates. Remember to unmute your microphone when it is your turn to contribute and allow one person to speak at a time.

Students - Acceptable Use of Information Technology

All Grand Erie students should understand that use of Grand Erie Information Technology resources and services is a privilege. Students are required to use resources solely for educational purposes and comply with Policy SO27 - Acceptable Use of Information Technology.
