GELA Principal Scott Johnson participates in the United Way “Do the Math” Challenge

Tuesday, September 22 – Thursday, September 24, 2015

Scott Johnson, Principal, 519-753-6079

Scott Johnson picked up a standard three-day emergency food supply hamper provided by the Brantford Food Bank on Monday, Sept. 21. Over the three days, Scott will live exclusively off of the hamper filled with an array of non-perishable food items to last a person two to three days and not accept any free food or drink. As he works through his three-day supply of food, he is encouraged to journal about the experience. This challenge is to bring light to Hunger Awareness Week and provide a deeper understanding of the United Way and its services.
