

Indigenous Voices Speaker Series

For info and registration contact: norfolksunrise.org

September 29

Amos Key Jr, Exec. Director of SONICS Six Nations Radio
“Building Respectful Relations and Understanding”

October 13

Bryant Peters, Professor of Indigenous Studies, Fleming College
“What You Need to Know about the Indian Act”

October 27

Steven Greyeyes, National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation
“Residential Schools: History and Reconciliation”

November 10

Rene Thomas- Hill Six Nations Elder
“Living in Two Worlds”

All programs begin at 7:00 p.m. on alternating Wednesdays

The speaker series will be available on Zoom through donation

Suggested donation: $10.00 per session,

Net proceeds to be used to support the Mohawk Village Memorial Garden

Tickets available - Port Dover Jewellery & Gifts
norfolksunrise.org or contact
Mary at 67 Dogwood Dr. Simcoe N3Y 0B2 cell 519-410-4022

Presented by

Grace United Church

Rotary
Norfolk Sunrise

